

Innovative Readiness Training Process Overview

*Requests to be included in the Opportunities Brief are due Sep 30, but applications are accepted any time

† Military Application Rounds
1: Primary mission area (construction/medical...)
2: Enhancing services; program/asset mgmt

Innovative Readiness Training Matching Process

* Requests to be included in the Opportunities Brief are due Oct 1, but applications are accepted any time

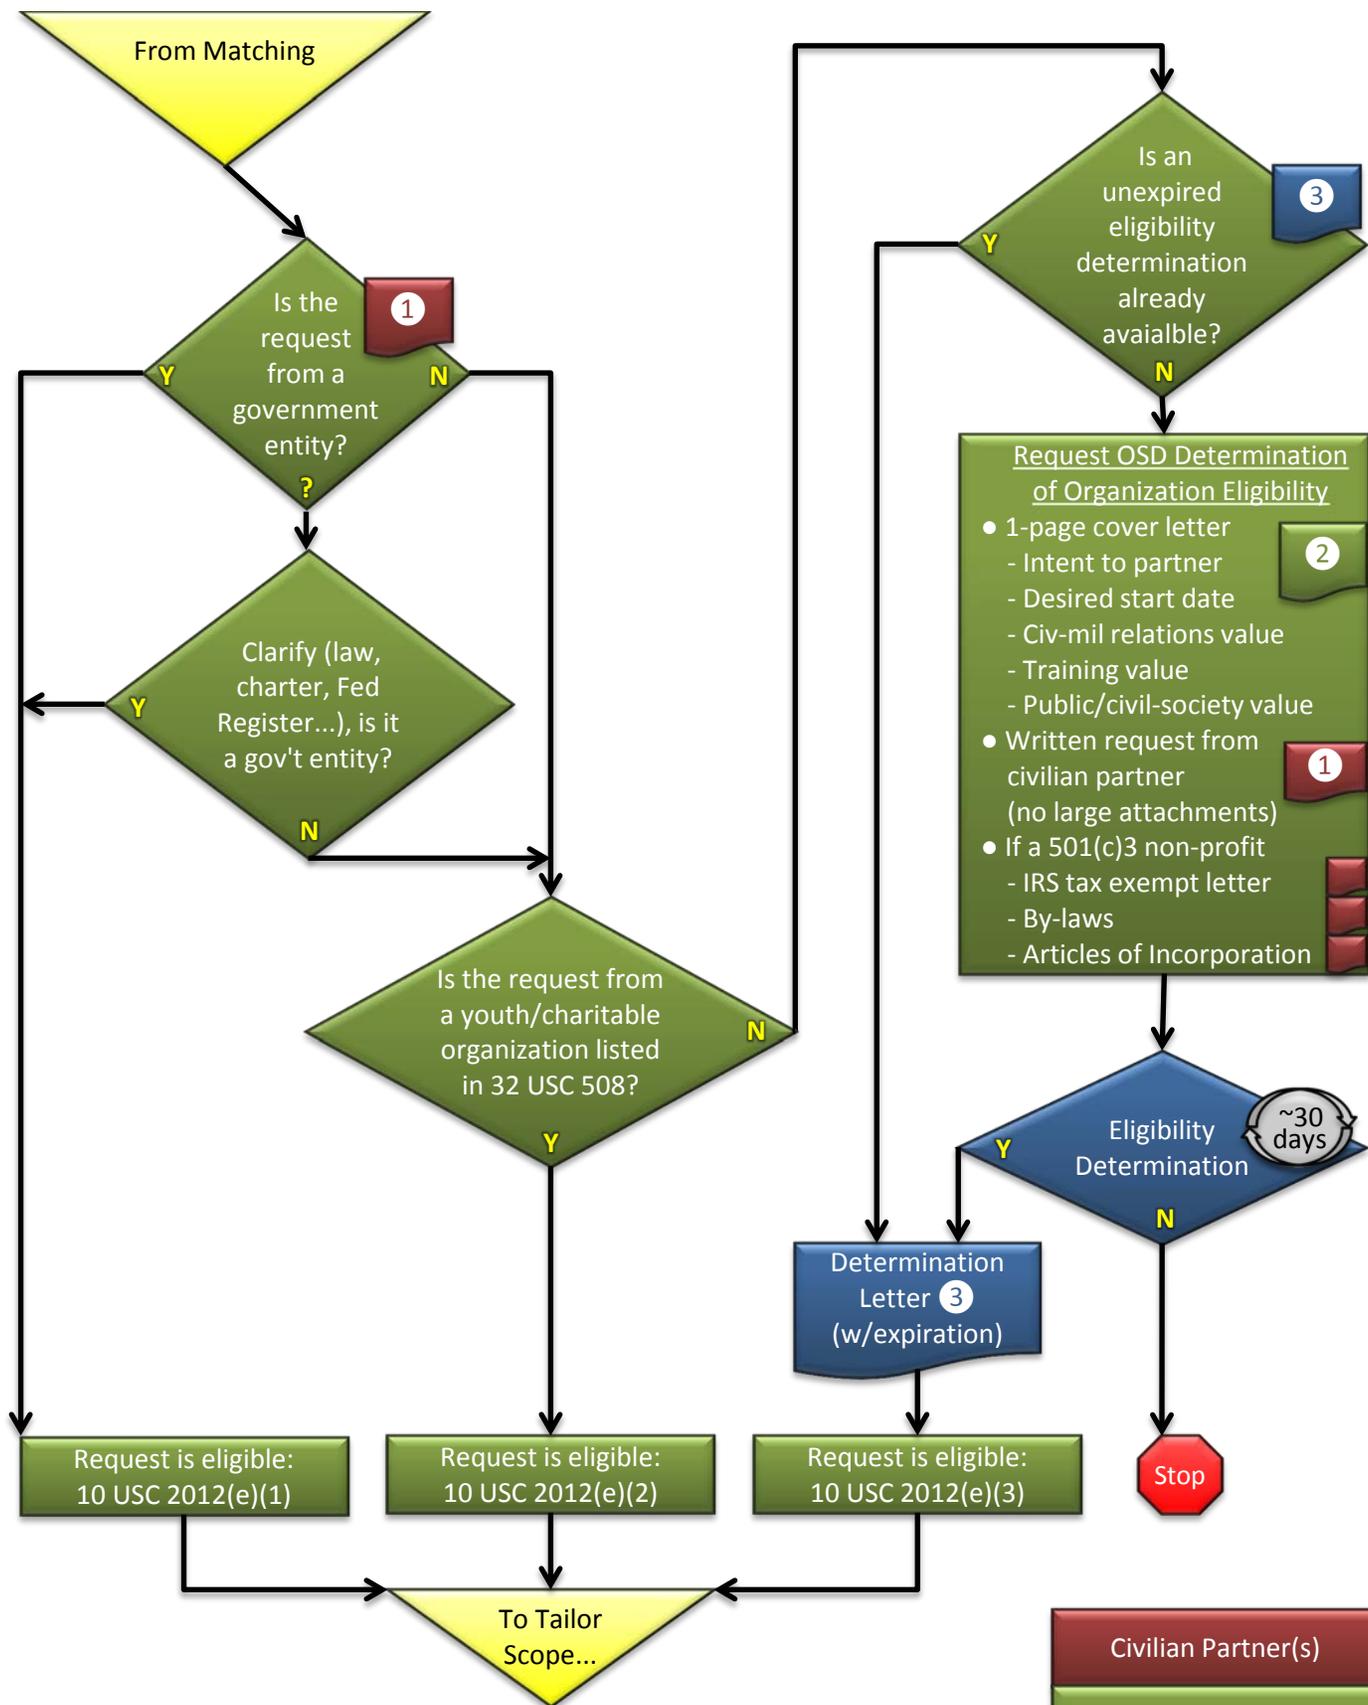

† The assigned liaison (Military Partner/Service or OSD) completes the initial review & posts results; any interested Military Partner/Service may review the request and request missing or clarifying information within the workspace

① Written Request for Support and Services from the potential civilian partner

② Sent when ① is complete; include: a) project title, b) requesting organization's name, c) project State, d) a 1-sentence project description, and e) a list of email addresses from the civilian organization to be granted workspace permission

Innovative Readiness Training Eligibility Determination Process

- ① Written Request for Support and Services from potential civilian partner
- ② Package from Military/Service Partner to OSD to determine eligibility
- ③ Letter of determination of organization eligibility from OSD

